bury, Conn., who was visiting the Misses Hoddie for several months, was married to Mr. J. A. Rutkins, also of Waterbury, April 24, at New Haven, Conn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. J. Glushak of Washington.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will give its annual May dance at Chevy Chase Lake Thursday, May 22, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Lee Webb, chairman of the entertainment committee, will have charge of the dance. A list of chaperones will be published shortly.

"Welcome Home" Celebration.

All arrangements have been completed for the "welcome home" celebration to be given by the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Washington Camp, No. 205, to those members who have returned from service in the recent war, Tuesday evening, May 13, at Confederate Memorial Home, 1322 Vermont avenue northwest.

Invitations are extended to all members of the camp and friends, the federal troops, the Daughters of the Confederacy and members of camps from other cities.

A musical entertainment, followed by a dance, has been arranged under the direction of Mr. Frank R. Fravel and Mr. Albert Sidney Perry, assisted by Mr. J. Roy Price, Mr. E. H. Sothern, Mr. Elgin H. Haddock, Mr. J. T. Ashby, Mr. E. Kahn and Mr. George T. Rawlins.

Mrs. Walter E. Hutton will act as chairman of the entertainment committee and she will be assisting Mrs. Albert Sidney Perry, Mrs. J. A. Keppel, Mrs. M. E. Kahn, Mrs. C. L. Lusk, Mrs. Eugene Rollins, Mrs. Walter Streeter, Mrs. Maud Howell Smith, Miss Clark and Miss Marie Louise Owens.

Georgetown College Prom.

The list of patrons and patronesses for the elaborate prom to be given at the Wardman Park Inn Tuesday night, May 13, by the senior class of the Georgetown University will include the names of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. William H. DeLacy and Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Holden.

The ballroom will be converted into a veritable bower of palms and spring flowers.

The college colors, blue and gray, will be much in evidence. The committee in charge of the prom, which is being given under the exclusive auspices of the college graduating class, is determined to make this an artistic event that will triumph over anything previously seen here in the way of college dances.

The number of novelties both in idea and appointments are due to the diligence of Mr. Louis A. Lang, president of the senior class of Georgetown College, who is chairman of the prom committee, and the following members of the committee, also of the class of '19 of the college: Messrs. Thomas W. Arundel, Stanley C. Burke, Edmund C. Connolly, J. Eugene Garley, William P. McMahon, Raymond H. Reiss, Albert V. Shortell and J. Robert Zuger.

Mrs. J. Levy has as her guest Mrs. Gerson Jacobson and Mrs. Max Jacobson of New York.

The war workers of Washington representing ten departments of the government will give a grand May party and dance May 15 at Rauscher's. A special program has been arranged and several artists of fame will participate. Great enthusiasm is being demonstrated in the various departments over the affair. The party is being given for the pleasure and entertainment of the war workers of Washington. Workers from every state in the Union will attend, and the proceeds over and above the expenses will go to the Walter Reed Hospital.

Mrs. L. S. Wilcox and Miss Pauline Wilcox, who have been spending the past six weeks at Atlantic City, N. J., have returned to the city and are at 1162 Corcoran street.

Mrs. R. J. Mickey announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Edna O. Haulup, to Guy Coleman of Atlanta, Ga., Saturday, May 10.

Mrs. William M. Geddes of Columbia road gave an informal tea Wednesday, from 4 to 6, to meet her house guest, Mrs. Warren Kinsman Dove of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Jensen of Rock Falls, Ill. Mrs. Dove attended the D. A. R. session in April, and left Friday to visit relatives and friends in New Jersey, New York and Massachusetts before returning to Detroit in June.

Mrs. Geddes also entertained at several informal dinners, in honor of her guest.

The weekly gymkhana for children at the Riding and Hunt Club of Washington were held indoors yesterday morning on account of the rain. The winners in the stall race
